

2017 ATCHISON COUNTY FAIR DEMONSTRATION SCHEDULE

Tuesday, August 8th

- 6:00 pm Atchison County Barn Quilt Trail & Barn Quilt Parade – View a few of the quilts created in FCE sponsored barn quilt classes. Learn about plans for an Atchison quilt trail.
- 7:00 pm Tips for Getting That Perfect Photo – Chris Taylor, Atchison Historical Society Director – Chris brings years of experience, capturing the moment from behind the camera.

Wednesday, August 9th

- 6:30 pm For Our Flag– Flag etiquette and disposal tips by Atchison Girl Scouts. Local History & Mystery– All evening. Boats, trails and planes shaped our local history. Local residents and those with national claim to fame have walked our streets and byways. Hear a few tales about our historical trails, or spin a few yarns about our proud past will fellow fair goers. Facilitated by Atchison County Historical Society.

Thursday, August 10th

- 10:00-6:00 Recycled Denim Creations & Sewing Demonstrations- Sponsored by J&M Sewing, Holton – Be inspired as you spend the day with J&M staff, Edna Baker and Lavern Fowler. Featuring denim designed projects and more. Come and go sessions all day.
- 7:00 pm Atchison Solar Eclipse- Dr. Ryan Maderak, Benedictine College – Learn about this 2 minute 19 second once in a lifetime event showing in your Atchison County backyard on August 21.

Friday, August 11th

- 10:00am Meals in Minutes with Electric Pressure Cooking – Join our chefs as they share tips to make meal time a quick fix. Recipes and samples to taste. More tips on Saturday.
- 12:30pm Fixing Funky Foods – Have you ever wondered about that strange looking fruit on the grocery shelf? How does it taste? How would you fix it? With hundreds of new foods on the grocery shelf, this program offers a fun glimpse of a few funky foods you just might enjoy!
- 2:00pm Emporia Quilts- Deborah Divine, Kansas Humanities Council – Between 1925 and 1945, women from Emporia, Kansas created some of the twentieth-century's most memorable appliqué quilts. Listen to quilt stories. Bring fabric, thread, thimble, pins, needle and scissors. Leave with your own Emporia inspired quilt block. Block making limited to 25 persons. Sign up early, at www.atchison.k-state.edu or call (913)833-5450.
- 5:30pm Medical Awareness: As Simple as A Yellow Dot On Your Car- Barbara & Mike Higgins – The Yellow Dot program is a Kansas Lions Club service project. The dot provides emergency responders important medical information. Stop by for your life-saving yellow dot kit.

Saturday, August 12th

- 10-noon Safety First... Be Prepared & Safety Kit for Disasters – Be prepared when disaster strikes. While we don't know when disaster may strike, it is never too early to prepare.
- 1:00pm Bread Shaping – A few tips you might "knead" to know about shaping dough.
- 3:00pm More Meals in Minutes – We added more recipes and more tips to use your electric pressure cooker.

Sponsored by Atchison County Family & Community Education Units and Kansas Humanities Council

All programs held in the Blue Building

Additional information/schedule updates
www.atchison.k-state.edu/fce

Facebook Atchison County Family and Community Education

Phone: 913-833-5450

KSRE is an equal opportunity provider.